Light of Light e - tern - al shin - ing, ve - ry God of ve - ry God!
 born in time, Who time cre - at - ed; born as man, Who fash - ioned - man.
 like to us, e'en in temp - ta - tion; like in all things, but for sin.
 fills our beg - gared hands with rich - es, clothes our mort - al flesh in life.

5. What is man, that God should borrow death and suff'ring from his store?
 Who this God, to share his nature with mankind forever more?
 What these myst'ries, seen of mortals,
 which inspire the heav'ns to praise,
 things on which the hosts of angels long to look, yet dare not gaze?

6. Glory be to God the Father, throned above in highest heav'n!
 Peace on earth to them that seek Him:
 unto them the Son is giv'n!
 Glory to the Holy Spirit,
 by Whose pow'r this comes to be:
 God with man forever dwelling,
 man among the Trinity!
